

The Center for School-University Partnerships is proud to sponsor the following
Institute for Continuous Improvement (ICI):

“IN-HOME FAMILY THERAPY: MODELS & BEST PRACTICES”

April 3, 2009 - 8:30 A.M. - 4:30 P.M.

- Minnesota State University, Mankato campus
Centennial Student Union - Room 238
(Nickerson Room)
- This course has been approved by the Minnesota Board of Marriage and Family Therapy for 7 hours of credit (#CE: 3608)

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: MARCH 20, 2009

COURSE OVERVIEW

In this workshop participants will spend time learning about the nature and philosophy of in-home services. Participant's knowledge will be expanded through lecture, discussion, and readings. The focus will be on the current standards for the delivery of in-home services, and the skills necessary to fulfill the requirements. Ethical concerns and pragmatic issues will be covered as will diagnosis, treatment planning, and effective models of therapy.

Register online at: <http://ed.mnsu.edu/csup/ici/>

FOR INFORMATION CONTACT:

Center for School-University Partnerships
Minnesota State University, Mankato
117 Armstrong Hall
Mankato, MN 56001
Phone: 507-389-1217 Fax 507-389-2838
E-mail: csup@mnsu.edu
Registration Fee: $100.00

KEY OUTCOMES

In this workshop learners will:

1. Gain a basic understanding of the current in-home practices, and procedures prescribed by DHS and HMO's.
2. Learn how to determine which therapy models and procedures to use when providing to in-home clients.
3. Learn and examine the ethical issues and risks encountered in practicing in-home therapy.
4. Learn indicators of success when practicing in-home therapy.
5. Gain an understanding of the cultural competencies needed in practicing in-home therapy.

Instructor Profile:
Hans Skulstad

Hans Skulstad, a native of the Mankato area, is a licensed marriage and family therapist and Minnesota Board and AAMFT Approved Supervisor. He sees his supervision and his work with individuals and families influenced by his seven years of experience providing home base services, supervising home based providers, and his varied life experiences. Hans has previously presented this workshop on in-home therapy at Minnesota State Mankato and received very positive feedback from participants. We welcome him for this return engagement. His specialty areas include anxiety and depression, anger management, attention deficit, abuse, athletes and their families, couples issues, stress management, conduct disorder, oppositional defiant disorder, life transitions, and family therapy. He served five years as the Legislative Chair for the Minnesota Association of Marriage and Family Therapists.

A member of the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities System. Minnesota State Mankato is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity University. Individuals with a disability who need a reasonable accommodation to participate in this workshop, please contact the Center for School-University Partnerships at 507-389-1217 (V), 800-627-3529 or 711 (MRS/TTY) at least five days prior to the workshop. This document is available in alternative format to individuals with disabilities by calling the above numbers.

Center for School-University Partnerships
Minnesota State University, Mankato
117 Armstrong Hall
Mankato, MN 56001

NON-PROFIT ORGN.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
PERMIT NO. 202
MANKATO, MN 56001