

Assessment System Transition Points for EBD & LD Candidates

Transition Point 1: Admission to a program of study, candidates undergo a screening process that includes:

- Completed Graduate School application
- A cumulative undergraduate minimum GPA of 2.5

Transition Point 2: After completing 10-15 credits in the EBD or LD core courses:

- Complete Graduate Plan of Study
- Records review of disposition reports

Transition Point 3: To move to advanced level clinical experience, candidates must:

- Completed application to clinical experience
- Successfully complete required preliminary coursework
- Successfully complete required core assessments
- Earn a GPA of at least 3.0

Transition Point 4: Candidates must successfully complete their clinical experiences to complete the licensure course sequence and completion of Certificate Program.

- Assessment by University supervisor and off-campus supervisor, if applicable
- Earn at least a satisfactory evaluation on the clinical experience
- Successfully complete required core assessments
- Successfully complete Praxis II licensure exam

Transition Point 5: To change from Certificate Program to Master's Degree Program

- Successfully meet writing sample requirement

Transition Point 6: All advanced candidates must demonstrate content, professional and pedagogical (where applicable) knowledge and skills included in the curriculum for their field of study.

- Completion of all coursework with a GPA of at least 3.0
- Successfully complete Capstone project
- Successfully complete Comprehensive exam
- Complete all degree/program requirements
- Receive approval of the graduate coordinator for the department